Description

A late 18th-century George III oval-shaped gateleg table in oak featuring a drawer at either end, with each drawer having a brass pull handle. A charming example of a classic country house piece of furniture. This piece would be ideal as a side table in a hallway or as a folding dining table suitable for 4/6 people. The overall condition is very good. As shown in the images, there are numerous scuffs and marks consistent with age and use.
