Description

A solid and attractive early 20th-century oak refectory table. It features a rectangular plank top, raised on cup-and-cover supports with sleigh feet, and a central stretcher for added stability. Full of character, with a rich patina throughout, this piece is a striking and practical example of traditional oak craftsmanship. Item Ref; M-6435 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 75.5cm / Width - 152.5cm / Depth - 75cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout, with some signs of age and surface wear, including age-related marks and scratches. The top can be removed for ease of transport. The table comfortably seats six. There is some fading and splitting to the top, and fading to the stretcher, all of which add to the character and history of the piece. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance and quality.
