Description

A beautifully detailed Edwardian mahogany chair, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design typical of the early 20th century. The chair features a finely carved backrest with stylised foliage motifs, gracefully curved lines, and turned front legs on original brass castors. The seat has been newly reupholstered in a fresh blue and white striped cotton fabric with red trim — giving this timeless piece a contemporary coastal look while retaining its antique charm. Perfect as an accent chair for a bedroom, hallway, or dressing area. Excellent antique condition. Solid and sturdy frame, newly upholstered seat, beautifully polished mahogany with a rich warm patina.
