Description

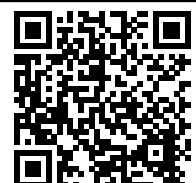

An antique Edwardian sterling silver Sovereign case which is circular in shape with a gold ball style finish to the body and a push button at the top to open the lid to reveal a spring mechanism in order to house the Sovereigns. This silver Sovereign case would make a useful addition to a collection and could be worn if so desired as there is a ring attachment at the top. It remains in excellent condition. When taking photographs, it is difficult to eliminate the reflection on silver. Diameter: 3 cms (1.2") Depth: 1.4 cms (0.6") Weight: 20 grams It was hallmarked in Birmingham for 1908 by A.L. Dennison. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this Sovereign case for UK only. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
