Description

A delightful little mid-Victorian (circa 1860) oval-shaped occasional table. With a walnut veneered top boasting a swivel mechanism, drop leaves and a drawer at each end of the frieze. Raised on a turned pedestal and finished with shaped, carved cabriole legs. The overall condition is very good with age-related wear and tear. We have noted one of the drawers has had a small section of veneer replaced on the bottom right of the face and an historic repair to the end of one of the leaves where it meets the table.
