Description

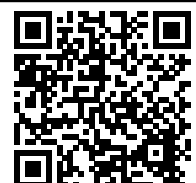

Fine quality mid C19th ormolu-mounted burr and figured Circassian walnut kidney-shaped writing table or 'bureau-plat'. Cross-banded and inlaid with satinwood and kingwood, the top retaining its original inset shaped scarlet Morocco leather writing surface with gilt and 'blind' tooled edge. The shapely cabriole-style legs each with an elaborate brightly gilded ormolu cast bronze rococo-style full-length mount onto integral sabot feet. The friezes of serpentine outline, the front central frieze section having a 'concealed' mahogany-lined full-length drawer. The shaped friezes all with kingwood cross-banding. In excellent original condition with a mellow colour and patina to the original polished surface. The table has been sympathetically cleaned and waxed in our workshops, ready for the home. A flamboyantly designed English-made table in the French Louis XVI period taste, probably produced by the esteemed cabinet-making firm Gillows of Lancaster. * highly figured Circassian walnut (Juglans Regia) which was imported from Eastern Europe and Asia was highly prized by cabinet-makers for its distinctive figuring, rich colour and tight burr grain.
