Description

A charming 19th Century French Walnut & Marble Washstand. A rather sweet French 19th-century walnut and marble washstand — simple yet elegant. This delightful piece features beautifully turned legs, a single drawer with a shaped apron, double towel rails to each side, and a lower shelf that offers both charm and practicality. The white marble top, complete with a raised three-quarter gallery, perfectly complements the warm tones and natural grain of the walnut. Whether you're styling a bathroom, finishing a cloakroom project, or seeking a decorative accent for a bedroom or hallway, this timeless washstand brings an authentic touch of French country elegance. It's ideal for storing and displaying towels or toiletries with style. In very good condition with a lovely colour and patina. Table top height 72cm
