Description

A beautiful and useful Art Deco birds eye maple and walnut cabinet. This was made in England, it dates from the 1930's. This is of outstanding quality, its a great size. It looks like bedside cabinet size in the images, but in reality it is much taller, offering lots of storage space within the eight internal drawers. This is predominantly birds eye which has a gorgeous colour tone, it contrasts beautifully with the darker walnut banding on the top and lower edges. We have had this stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is superb throughout. Width – 44 cm , 17.5 inches Depth – 46 cm , 18 inches Height – 98 cm , 39 inches
