Description

An outstanding 18th Century Dutch display cabinet in walnut with allover inlaid flora marquetry. There are four shelves with ridges to support plates or other items including books etc. It is in excellent condition commensurate with age. The glass in the display is original with lovely natural imperfections in line with the age. The bombé drawers have original brass handles. It is a beautiful piece, elegant and modest of proportions. Circa 1770. We can discuss delivery in UK or overseas. Payment by bank transfer or by card over the phone.
