Description

An Edwardian brass floor lamp stand featuring a domed circular base adorned with a decorative border. The base sits on four neoclassical stylised feet that adds elegance to the overall design. The slender central column is topped with an early bayonet-style bulb holder, indicating the lamp was originally manufactured for electric use. Rich in patina and bearing surface dents and wear consistent with age, this lamp base offers a beautiful antique aesthetic. H: 112 W: 31 D: 31 cm
