Description

A fine 18th-century oak coffer featuring a moulded cornice top lid that opens to reveal a spacious interior with a fitted candle box. The front is carved and panelled, showcasing traditional craftsmanship, and the piece is raised on square legs. A charming example of early oak furniture with a rich patina and timeless appeal. Item Ref; M-6215B . DIMENSIONS: Height - 60.5cm / Width - 117.5cm / Depth - 49cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout, showing signs of age and surface wear, including age-related marks and scratches. There is some splitting throughout, with staining to the inside of the lid, and areas of loss, staining, and fading to the top. Despite these age-related features, the piece remains solid and sound, full of character and period charm. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance.
