Description

A Truly Stunning Antique Set of 3 Cut Glass Decanters, each adorned with vertical fluting and intricate patterns, and finished with faceted globe stoppers. The decanters rest within an elaborate silver-plated stand, their circular holders formed as intertwined laurel branches - a classical motif symbolising victory and refinement. This elegant design continues into the central carrying handle, crafted as a laurel wreath that provides both balance and ease of movement. The stand is further enhanced by scrolling floral feet, bringing the design together with a refined classical finish. Stamped with the Elkington date letter mark V for the year 1860. * A true conversation piece, this striking set was designed to serve fine spirits with elegance and remains just as captivating on display as it is in use.
