Description

A quality pair of large Silver Plate on Copper Victorian Wine - Champagne bottle coasters. With lions head and floral garlands of laurel leaves, the turned wooden base with central condensation button. A perfect addition to the dining table this Christmas. The hallmark showing a crowned lion passant above the letters "M & H" — belongs to Mappin & Webb, a renowned British silversmith and retailer. Mark: "M & H" stands for Mappin & Hutton, an early partnership variation used by the firm before it became Mappin & Webb Ltd. This particular mark — with M & H — is typically dated to the late 19th to early 20th century (around 1860–1900), during the time when Mappin Brothers and Mappin & Webb were operating under various partnerships. 11.5cm tall x 17cm wide
