Description

An impressive antique Edwardian sterling silver and cut glass jug which has a plain silver mount, a plain hinged lid, a simple thumb piece and a good pouring spout. Although each piece has been hallmarked, the date letter on the main body is illegible. The elaborately cut glass body has been designed to a high standard and depicts star cut decoration. This silver mounted jug would be perfect to use for serving Pimms, lemonade or water and would look attractive on the table. It would hold 2 litres of liquid. Height: 29 cms (11.4") Diameter of base: 17 cms (6.7") It was hallmarked in Sheffield circa 1900 by Cooper Brothers & Sons Ltd. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this jug.
