Description

A large Longquan celadon dish dating to the late Yuan dynasty (14th century). Made in a dense stoneware body and covered in a clear bluish-green glaze, the surface shows a molded floral scroll surrounding a trellis-centre with radiating petals. The wide unglazed footring fired to a warm orange tone, abundant pinholes to the base, and pooled glaze are all characteristic of Yuan Longquan ware. Measurements • Diameter: 34 cm (13.4?) • Height: 5 cm (2.0?) • Weight: 2070 g Condition Five small rim chips to the biscuit edge; no cracks; no overpainting or restoration under UV. A finely preserved example of Yuan Longquan craftsmanship. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery. Professional, secure packing. Please review all photographs carefully as they form part of the description; questions welcome.

Internal Ref: B1455
