Description

A rare early Minton porcelain vase of lobed oval form on a raised foot, decorated in a vivid Imari-style palette of iron-red, cobalt and green enamels. The centre reserves the celebrated “Crazy Cow” (a.k.a. “Bengal Tiger”) within a cobalt medallion; base painted 106. Among the highest-value English porcelain decorations, Crazy Cow ranks with Dragon in Compartment for desirability—here made rarer still by the large, unusual oval form with scalloped rim and dense flower-scroll interior. Measurements • Length: 30.5 cm (12.01?) • Height: 12.5 cm (4.92?) • Depth: 22 cm (8.66?) • Weight: 1022 g Condition Excellent antique condition. Minor enamel rubbing only; no cracks, chips or restorations noted. Strong colours and crisp detail. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery. Professional, secure packing. Please review all photos as they form part of the description; questions welcome.
