Description

An early and very rare pair of Mason's Ironstone rectangular lidded jars, decorated in the Bandana pattern (B3122). Produced circa 1810-1815, likely during the transitional Miles Mason period, these vases embody the height of early English chinoiserie taste. Each vase is beautifully hand-painted in vivid enamels of turquoise, orange, yellow, pink and cobalt, highlighted with gold. The whimsical cloud and scroll motifs draw directly from Chinese cloisonné and porcelain designs, reflecting the fascination with Oriental luxury among Regency collectors. Measurements • Height: 20.5 cm (8.1") • Width: 8.2 cm (3.2") • Depth: 8.2 cm (3.2") • Combined weight: 727 g Condition Vase 1: Minute chip to inner lid edge and minor rim wear; otherwise near-perfect with superb colour retention. Vase 2: Chip to top shoulder and one to lid; enamels bright, gilt strong, overall excellent display condition. Highly desirable and rarely encountered as a matching pair, these Bandana vases represent a prime investment opportunity in early Mason's Ironstone.
