Description

An Antique Victorian Silver-Plated Table Gong designed in a naturalistic faux-bamboo style, with matching striker. It is a beautiful example of late 19th-century Orientalist-inspired decorative arts, merging utility with artistic form. Most likely used as a dinner gong, servant bell, or parlour call bell, it reflects a period where such objects were not only functional but also served as visual centrepieces within affluent homes – circa 1890. Measurements: Height: 9 1/2" (approx. 24cm) Width: 7" (approx. 17.5cm) Total weight: 1242g In good condition – Silver plating is bright with minimal wear. No dents or damage visible on the bell. Still has a nice ring to it!
