Description

A charming antique dinner gong presented on an elegant, turned mahogany stand. The circular hammered brass gong is suspended from a rope cord and produces a deep, resonant tone when struck with the accompanying mallet. The beautifully crafted wooden frame features finely turned columns, a decorative spindle gallery along the top, and sturdy bracketed supports at the base, ensuring both balance and visual appeal. This piece would make a wonderful addition to a traditional dining room, country house, or period interior — equally suited for practical use or as a distinctive decorative feature.
