Description

Royal Worcester Soup Dish for Phillips, 175 Oxford Street, London — Circa 1890 For sale is a superb Royal Worcester soup dish, made for Phillips of 175 Oxford Street, London, circa 1890. This fine example is lavishly decorated with beautifully hand-painted floral and insect panels, set against a rich deep red background adorned with intricate gilt detailing. The rim features an elegant rope-twist design. The reverse bears both the Royal Worcester and Phillips marks in puce. Measuring 25.5 cm in diameter and 3.5 cm in height, the dish is in excellent condition — free from chips, cracks, lines, or restoration. There is only some minor age-related glaze shrinkage, as shown in the photos. A wonderful piece for any Royal Worcester collector.
