Description

Large Antique Pair Of Bronze Marley Horses After Guillaume Coustou Signed. Beautiful and unusually large pair of bronze Marley horses. Both pieces are cast in wonderful detail with a lovely rich patinated finish. They show off a wonderful detail and even the bases have flowers and a naturalistic effect. They are also signed "Coustou" and a cast after A French, bronze equine statue in the manner of Guillaume Coustou (1677-1746), with these examples dating to around 1880. Considered a masterpiece of French sculpture, the large marble originals skilfully represented here in quality, heavy bronze. With the originals displayed in the Musee de Louvre, this is an opportunity to grace your home or institution with fine antique bronze examples. They each measure approximately: - 15.5" / 39.5cm Tall. - 12.5" / 32cm Wide. - 5.5" / 14cm Deep.
