Description

An impressive antique Victorian curtain pole in beautifully aged and ebonised mahogany dating from circa 1880 measuring 186cm finial to finial. In Aesthetic Movement taste, this unique piece has a country house feel with wonderful age and patina; the mellow well-figured channelled mahogany pole with ebonised highlights and large turned finials to either end. The pole has a cut-out section where originally a brass pulley would have been; but now has 14 wooden rings for holding curtains. Price is for 1 but there are 2 available of slightly different sizes. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Original condition with good colour and patina. General wear and marks commensurate with age. Rings included. No brackets. Dimensions: Max Width Finial to Finial: 186cm Pole Width: 147cm Pole Diameter: 6cm
