Description

An antique Regency sofa table in figured elm and yew, English c.1820. The rectangular top with drop leaves displays a richly grained surface, supported on twin pedestal bases with string-inlaid sabre legs terminating in brass caps and castors. The frieze contains two drawers to each side, fitted with round brass pulls, providing balanced storage. The combination of contrasting veneers and elegant proportions exemplifies early 19th-century craftsmanship, while the practical extending form reflects the period's focus on versatility in domestic furnishings.
