Description

A 19th Century English Wirework 2 Tier White Painted Plant Stand, 160cm. A handsome late 19th century, generous scale antique wirework plant stand measuring an impressive 160cm wide. A rare large scale 2 tier wrought iron plant or conservatory stand with original distressed white paint over galvanised iron frame and lattice work. An ornate conservatory or orangery plant stand, rare to discover a stand of this scale, structurally excellent and cosmetically very good, with evidence of a timeworn patination and character. Dimensions Width 160cm Height 66cm Depth 62cm A superbly stylish English country house, orangery/conservatory stand, circa 1870-1880 of both practical use and considerable decorative appeal, an interior design piece for a classic or contemporary space. The metal is galvanised and hence no rust. Please note that 1 end has a diamond lattice decoration to the side, the opposite is open, otherwise original and stands well. A robust piece that can withstand weight and potentially a bench for a hall etc..., Please request more photos and any questions invited. Free collection from Lewes, East Sussex. U.K. delivery available. We operate a weekly deliver...
