Description

This exquisite Victorian mahogany chest of drawers is a fine example of 19th-century craftsmanship, showcasing a unique and carefully chosen veneered front with a striking flame mahogany pattern. The natural grain symmetry creates a warm, luxurious aesthetic that makes this piece truly stand out. Designed with both elegance and practicality in mind, the chest features panelled sides. The chest comprises two short drawers over four full-width drawers, all retaining their original turned wooden knobs and brass key escutcheons. A beautifully aged patina adds to its timeless charm, making it an ideal statement piece for both traditional and modern interiors. Key Features: • Period: Victorian, circa mid-19th century • Wood: Solid mahogany with exceptional flame veneer selection • Panelled sides for added craftsmanship detail • Original turned mahogany knobs and brass keyholes • Rich, warm patina and excellent condition Measurements: • Width: 110 cm (43 ½ in) • Depth: 51.5 cm (20 ¼ in) • Height: 125 cm (49 ¼ in) This handsome piece combines artistry and function, offering both visual appeal and ample storage — a true testament to Victorian furniture design.
