Description

A fine and interesting Victorian drawing of a cat with kittens. The drawing is of superb quality and quite extraordinarily finely drawn. The cat sits on a rather plump cushion surrounded by her kittens one playing with a tassel. The work is signed by monogram to the lower left but is unidentified. The work has had a significant tear to the upper left. The piece is mounted and framed in the original gilt frame which is in good untouched antique condition. C.1900. Overall sizes in inches including frame: 11 ¼ by 9 ¼
