Description

A late Victorian mahogany piano stool, the hinged upholstered seat lifting to reveal a useful storage compartment and standing on elegantly shaped cabriole legs with turned spindle side supports flanking the seat. Combining practical design with decorative presence, ideal beside a period piano but equally suitable for a dressing table or as an occasional seat in a bedroom or hall. Upholstered in a soft blue fabric trimmed with gold braid, providing a tasteful contrast to the rich mahogany tones. Presented in very good antique condition with a pleasing aged patina, solid frame, and sound joints. The upholstery is later but neatly executed and the lid opens smoothly on its original hinges. Minor evidence of old, long-dormant worm to the back, fully treated and stable. Clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1890. H: 60 W: 53.5 D: 37.5 cm Seat height: 54 cm
