Description

A beautifully designed cast-iron and beech countertop paper roll dispenser, illustrating the hints of Art Nouveau design. The cast-iron sides feature flowing floral motifs, supporting beech shelving fitted with curved metal arms for holding paper rolls. Originally used on a shop counter for dispensing wrapping paper, this piece is of a practical design with decorative appeal in its iron work. It retains its original finish and shows an attractive, warm patina to both the ironwork and beech surfaces. H: 60 W: 61 D: 20 cm
