Description

An exceptionally handsome antique bureau bookcase in rich burr walnut, crafted in the early 20th century and beautifully influenced by late Georgian aesthetics. This elegant cabinet features a dramatic arched pediment, bevelled mirrored doors, a fitted writing bureau interior and graduated drawers with ornate brass handles. The bookcase opens to reveal two shelves - ideal for displaying cherished books, curiosities, or fine antiques. With its warm walnut tones, refined proportions, and silhouette, this piece makes a magnificent statement in a study, library, hallway or refined living space.
