Description

This is a Victorian Arts and Crafts occasional table which dates from around the 1890's and features an eight-sided top (octagonal) on four turned legs, connected by a lower tier that includes a pierced gallery. Made from walnut it has appealing and versatile proportions making it ideal as a lamp table, coffee table, side and occasional table. This slender and light table shows a nice colour and patina with the expected marks consistent with age and careful use.
