Description

An attractive Edwardian ebonised mahogany envelope card table. The square top twists on its base and opens in the form of an envelope to reveal a green baize card-playing surface, complete with circular divots for holding chips or other game pieces. To one side is a fitted drawer with ornate gilt brass handles, and the table is raised on four elegant cabriole legs united by a shaped undertier. A particularly charming example, full of character and early 20th-century appeal. Item Reference: M-6347 . Dimensions: Height – 73cm / Width – 58cm / Depth – 58cm / Width open – 82cm / Depth open – 82cm . Condition Report: In good antique condition overall, showing signs of age consistent with use. The green baize playing surface shows marks and deep scratches. There are marks and scratches to the table, consistent with age including a crack to the veneer to top (pictured), along with slight warping to each side and some loss of veneer to the back. These aspects are typical for a piece of this age and do not detract from its charm or functionality. Additional photos or videos are available upon request.
