Description

An elegant pair of cased silver gilt Victorian dessert spoons. Made in Dublin in 1890 by John Smyth. Both spoons are in excellent condition with crisp Irish hallmarks. The celtic point spoons have a cast design on the terminals and they fit snugly into the original box. They were retailed by Austin and Company of Westmoreland Street in Dublin. Very collectable and useable rare pieces of Irish silver. WEIGHT; 102 grams Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
