Description

You are viewing a gorgeous antique French gilt mantel clock Circa 1890, the clock is adorned with painted Sevres porcelain plaques. The clock features a gilt bronze (ormolu) case adorned with two reclining cherubs flanking the central dial, each modelled with delightful detail and classical grace. Between them rises a bouquet of flowers, finely cast and chased. The dial is enamel with Roman numerals and ornate gilt hands, framed by a beaded bezel. Surrounding the clock face are exquisite Sevres-style porcelain panels, hand-painted with cherubic scenes and floral garlands set against a turquoise blue ground — a hallmark of Parisian craftsmanship from the mid to late 19th century. The base is beautifully shaped with scrolling supports and foliate ornamentation, resting on toupie feet. This combination of gilded bronze and fine porcelain creates a dazzling centrepiece ideal for a mantel, console, or commode. The design epitomises the Rococo revival style, playful and elegant in equal measure. Bought from a dealer on Marche Biron at Paris antiques markets.
