Description

This is a remarkable almost museum quality example of the very rare solid 14ct gold Longines calibre 9LT Art Deco from 1955. The only work we have carried out is to service the movement and give the case a light polish with a soft cloth. The solid 14ct gold case is slightly oversize for the period measuring 26.6 wide and 37mm long excluding the original crown. The case edges are sharp and crisp, the serrations on the original winding crown are sharp. The watch looks like it was kept hidden away in a drawer and rarely worn. The movement is a fine calibre 9LT which is quite rare and very high quality, this was Longines highest grade movement of this period. It has been freshly serviced and is currently running at plus 10 seconds per day, not bad for a 70 year old watch. The serial number dates this watch to 1955. It has a beautiful Art deco case with hooded lugs and stepped sides. The beautiful dial is near perfect with stunning faceted hour markers that catch the light and very unusual asymmetric hands that just shout Art Deco. It's the most original and perfect unrestored example you will ever see. As you would expect the watch is fully marked on the dial, movement...
