Description

You are viewing a gorgeous Regency sofa in the manner of Thomas Hope Regency aesthetics with a heavy nod to neo-classicism. The sofa features a carved light walnut frame with a warm golden tone and distinctive scrolling arms — a hallmark of the early 19th century Regency period. The reeded detailing along the arms and base gives it a refined neoclassical rhythm, while the lower rail is adorned with a carved anthemion and palmette motif, echoing Greco-Roman influence. An absolute design classic, this will elevate any room. It stands on swept legs terminating in brass caps, enhancing both stability and period authenticity. The seat is upholstered in a pink damask fabric with a delicate paisley and floral pattern, complemented by two matching bolster cushions. Offered in great shape, ready for home use right away.
