Description

Here's a wonderful and slightly quirky piece of furniture with plenty of character. It features a neat Cornish top with a small decorative hanging detail below, a small cupboard with a shelf inside, a larger cupboard door on the right, four drawers down the left-hand side, and a full-width drawer at the bottom. The piece is in excellent condition—almost perfect, very clean and tidy. Originally painted, it has since been stripped back to bare wood. The right-hand cupboard is currently empty, though you can see where shelves were once fitted. We can easily add shelves or a hanging rail if you'd like. The internal depth on that side is 18", making it deep enough for hanging most clothes. A shelf with a hanging rail underneath is also an option. All drawers on the left-hand side work smoothly, and the top drawer includes removable plywood dividers. The wardrobe retains its original brass drop handles, adding to its charm. It also separates for easier delivery—the top section lifts off, and the main body divides into two parts. The largest piece is the right-hand section, so if that fits up your stairs, you'll have no trouble getting it in. Available for £1,500 as it is, o...
