Description

This is a very rare and early solid 9ct rose gold gents wristwatch made by the world renowned premier maker International Watch Company or IWC. This the rare calibre 83 movement which is regarded as one of the finest movements ever made and known as "The watchmakers watch" as you can see it is in fabulous condition. It is beautifully finished with Geneva stripe decoration, polished bevelled edges to the plates and gold chatons for the substantial ruby jewels. This is the wristwatch movement that set the bar for all future watches and earned IWC their reputation as one of the finest watchmakers in the world. Everything about this watch is original, the white enamel dial has not been restored or retouched in any way and is in superb condition with no hairlines or chips to the enamel. The fine peacock blue steel hands are also original and perfect. The winding crown is original the serrations are still crisp and sharp with just a slight loss of gold plating to the surface. It has a solid 9ct rose gold case which has been lightly hand polished with a jewellers cloth to bring out the rose colour. The cushion case is a rare oversize model measuring 31mm wide most cush...
