Description

A lovely, framed limited edition lithograph of a classic work by the French Symbolist master, Odilon Redon (1840-1916). This stunning piece captures Redon's signature ethereal style, depicting a graceful, nude figure playing panpipes—a frequent motif in Symbolist art, evoking mythology, dreams, and the subconscious. With the signature in the plate only, this is a limited edition by the artist's estate, numbered 300 out of 300 at the lower left margin. Measuring 37 x 22 at sight, it is presented in an elegant, deep green fabric mount and a complementary gold-toned wooden frame that enhances the delicate colours of the artwork. The overall framed size is 49 x 34 cm.
