Description

An exceptional silver plated kettle on stand with a spirit burner. With bone inserts in handle. Made by Atkin Bros of Sheffield which was founded in 1824. The trademark of a hand holding three ostrich feathers is a known mark for Atkin Brothers. The "HA EA FA" mark likely refers to the initials of the Atkin brothers (Harry, Edward, and Frank Atkin) who were in charge of the firm in the early 20th century. The number "R? N°461762" is a design registration number, which can be used to date the item. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and we can calculate the cost for international delivery.
