Description

A fine and beautiful distressed antique Kirman carpet, a delicate floral design with soft pinks and blues. An incredibly decorative and interesting carpet, the detailing is exquisite all woven by hand around 120 years ago. Condition is distressed and heavily worn, the carpet has a wonderful distressed look, although worn it is secure and in good order. The carpet has also been thoroughly cleaned, and the ends and selvedges have been checked and bound as necessary. Book in a showroom visit by appointment or request to view this lovely distressed antique Kirman carpet at home soon. Or please request a home visit, we travel all over the UK showing our carpets and rugs in situ to help you select the ideal carpet for your home. If you are an interior designer, you can request for us to reserve this distressed carpet for your project. You can also reserve it and arrange a home viewing or to see it at our barn showroom instead.
