Description

An ancient antique Mahal carpet with a rare natural off-white wool background, the deep blue border compliments it well and allows all the accent colours of red, pale blues, golds and greens to highlight the well drawn pattern. Beautifully hand woven with great flow and symmetry, this decorative carpet would blend seamlessly into an interior or be wonderful to select fabrics from. Condition is generally good with some minor wear in places, with our sturdy anti-slip underlay (supplied in the price) this would aid the carpet greatly, as it stops the carpet moving around on the floor adding body to it and preventing wear. Book in a showroom visit by appointment or request to view this antique Mahal carpet at home soon. Or please request a home visit, we travel all over the UK showing our carpets and rugs in situ to help you select the ideal carpet for your home. If you are an interior designer, you can request for us to reserve this antique carpet for your project. You can also reserve it and arrange a home viewing or to see it at our barn showroom instead.
