Description

A fine and cohesive pair of late-Meiji Satsuma vases from a Kyoto studio, decorated with haloed arhats in raised gilt and polychrome enamels. The surface design features rhythmic rows of Buddhist figures over patterned grounds of clouds and waves. Both pieces demonstrate confident draughtsmanship and the distinctive miniature brushwork typical of export Satsuma from the 1890–1910 period. Measurements • Height: 19.8 cm / 7.8" and 20 cm / 7.9" • Diameter: 11.8 cm / 4.6" • Weight: 458 g and 535 g Condition One vase is structurally sound with light gilt wear at the mouth. The other has a professionally glued rim crack that can be oriented to the back when displayed. Fine, stable Satsuma craquelure throughout. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery. Shipping cost includes professional packaging, careful handling, and secure postage. Carefully packed using recycled materials where possible. Please study all photographs as they form part of the description. Questions are welcome.
