Description

Finely modelled pair from the early Bloor Period (c.1830), re-using Duesbury era moulds but finished in the richer enamels and heavier gilding favoured by Robert Bloor. Jupiter is shown crowned, with thunderbolt and sceptre, attended by the eagle; Juno, crowned and veiled, stands beside her peacock. The vivid palette and gold heightening typify Derby's luxury output in this period. Measurements Jupiter — Height: 17.7 cm (7.0?); Width: 11 cm (4.3?); Depth: 7.3 cm (2.9?); Weight: 381 g Juno — Height: 17.0 cm (6.7?); Width: 11 cm (4.3?); Depth: 8.0 cm (3.1?); Weight: 331 g Condition Both figures retain bright original colours and gilding. Jupiter: old professional restoration to neck and left arm (elbow). Juno: restoration to neck and head scarf; peacock's tail reattached; small losses to right index finger and sceptre tip. Displays strongly. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery. Shipping cost includes professional packaging, careful handling, and postage.
