Description

An attractive light oak bench of simple form, likely early 20th century. The rectangular seat is supported on simple turned legs united by a stretcher base for stability. The pale surface gives the piece an understated presence, making it easy to place in both traditional and contemporary interiors. Ideal for use in a hallway, kitchen bootroom or alongside a dining table. Item Reference: M-6349 . Dimensions: Height – 56.5cm / Width - 124cm / Seat Depth - 24cm / Overall Depth - 37cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. Structurally solid and sound, the piece has a naturally toned finish which has been finished in a coat of clear natural wax. Overall an attractive piece. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home.
