Description

This stylish and unusual Six Person Elkington silver-plated service is a superb example of early-20th-century British design. Complete with a purpose-made silver-plated stand, it includes six fine porcelain demitasse cups with gilt handles and six clear glass liqueur or shot glasses, all neatly arranged in a two-tiered format. The elegant tiered stand is formed from a silver-plated wire frame with sculptural loops that securely cradle the cups and glasses. It features a central handle for easy carrying and serving. Each saucer is removable and supports either a porcelain coffee cup or glass shot glass, allowing the set to function beautifully for either after-dinner espresso service or liqueur presentation. This set bears the stamp of Elkington & Co, one of Britain's most respected silver plate manufacturers, and is marked with the date letter 'I' for the year 1920. Measurements: Height: 8 1/4" (approx. 21cm) Diameter: 11 1/2" (approx. 29cm) Total weight: 1362g In good condition – The silver plating remains bright with only minimal signs of wear consistent with age. No chips or cracks to the porcelain or glass cups. The stand is stable and solid, and all holders fit p...
