Description

17th Century Style Chinoiserie Eight Day Bracket Clock English c. 1900 With French Movement. This exquisite 17th Century style black lacquer & gilt bracket clock is superbly crafted & is offered in perfect original condition. The black Chinoiserie & gilt lacquerwork are executed to an exceptionally high standard. The clock features a French movement (stamped, as shown in the photographs) by Samuel Marti, the renowned Parisian clockmakers celebrated for their high quality craftsmanship in the late 19th century & awarded the Médaille d'Or in 1900. The movement has been fully serviced by a member of the Royal Horological Society & strikes on the half hour as well as the hour. The clock is accompanied by its original keys: one for winding & one for locking the front door. Measurements given are of the case. Height including handle is 38cm.
