Description

A truly exquisite late 19th-century Louis XVI Revival étagère, crafted with remarkable attention to detail. The desk writing section pulls out to reveal the leather writing surface. The leather does need replacing and we can do this ahead of shipping and purchase. Richly adorned with Sevres-style porcelain portrait plaques and finely cast gilt-bronze mounts. Sevres-style hand-painted porcelain plaques throughout. Rich burr walnut and kingwood veneers. Gilded ormolu mounts and applied bronze decoration. Original mirror and shaped architectural pediment. The upper section features a central mirrored panel framed by an architectural pediment, flanked by two beautifully veneered cabinet doors. Date 1860. Offered in great condition. Our showroom is just north of London in Hertfordshire, please get in touch if you would like to make an appointment. Length: 108 cm / 42 Inches Width: 56.5 cm / 22 Inches Height: 143 cm / 56 Inches
