Description

This is a lovely small old pine cupboard dating from around 1920, in nice condition for its age and full of rustic character. It features two drawers at the top and two cupboard doors below, which open to reveal a single interior shelf. The inside is clean and well-kept. The lock works smoothly, and while the top catch will need replacing, the lower one can easily be repositioned if preferred. The drawers slide well and will be checked to ensure smooth operation before sale. Compact and full of charm, this piece would make a lovely addition to a kitchen, hallway, or living space — adding both warmth and practical storage to your home. Available for £400 as it is, or £457 if you'd like it waxed in a shade of your choice. Dimensions: height 32½", width 38", depth 20½" (approximately 83 cm x 97 cm x 52 cm).
