Description

Antique silver pocket watch, Auguste Favre. The watch has a good quality Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the lion and serpent image, the logo for Auguste Favre of Cormoret, Switzerland. Favre registered the mark in 1925. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has an image of Fortuna, Roman Goddess Of Prosperity, along with details of the movement... $\frac{1}{2}$ chronometer, levées visibles, spiral Breguet, 19 rubies, balancier compensate. A $\frac{1}{2}$ chronometre is an older term for a watch that has been "adjusted" for temperature, meaning it has been tested and fine-tuned to perform accurately across a range of temperatures. Levées visible means the arrangement of the bridges and plates allows the watch's lever escapement to be seen, this was historically a mark of quality. Spiral Breguet is a Breguet hairspring for enhanced accuracy and balancier compensate is a compensated balance to allow for temperature change. This inner cover is also signed with the name Leyonet, another brand name registered by Auguste Favre, registered in 1913. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case...
