Description

A lovely mahogany side table of small proportions dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has an over-hanging top and it stands on square tapering legs. It has two small drawers, each with brass handles, above a nicely shaped frieze. It is in good condition for its age with a lovely colour and patina. There are signs of age and use and some old stains and marks on the top but nothing detrimental. There have been a couple of small repairs over the years and the handles don't match but the table is strong and sturdy and displays well. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
